

The Philadelphia Classical Guitar Society 2010 Student Competition

The Philadelphia Classical Guitar Society is proud to announce the 2010 PCGS Student Guitar Competition for students in PA, NJ and DE and featuring prizes including the $1000 Peter Segal Prize and an invitation to perform for PCGS in 2010-11 for the first place winner of the collegiate division.

The competition, with separate high school and collegiate divisions, will be held in three rounds:

1. A preliminary round with a tape or CD submission, application and entry fee due by February 27, 2010.
2. A live semifinal round, open to the public on Saturday, April 17, 2010 at First Unitarian Church, 2125 Chestnut St, Philadelphia, PA
3. A live final round during the 2010 Philadelphia Classical Guitar Society Annual Festival on Sunday, April 18, 2010 at Settlement Music School, 416 Queen St, Philadelphia, PA.

Collegiate Division

Open to students currently enrolled in and pursuing their first undergraduate degree at a school in the tri-state region, or college students with a permanent residence in the region and studying elsewhere.

$1000 - Peter Segal Prize
$350 - 2nd Prize
$150 - 3rd Prize
$40 application fee

Required Repertoire

Select either: Prelude 2 or Mazurka-Choro
by Heitor Villa-Lobos
&

One free choice work (not to exceed 7 minutes)

High School Division

Open to high school students (grades 9-12) from the tri-state region (PA, NJ, DE).

$100 - 1st Prize
TBA - 2nd Prize
TBA - 3rd Prize
$25 application fee

Required Repertoire

Select either: I. Maesoto or IV. Rondo (Allegretto) from Sonatine, Op. 71 by Mauro Giuliani
&

One free choice work (not to exceed 5 minutes)

Visit us on the web for more details and an application form:

www.phillyguitar.com/2010competition.html

The Jury will be drawn from performers and teachers in the region and from festival guest artists. In the event a competitor is a student of a jury member, that juror will be excused from judging that student and the remaining jurors' scores will be averaged.

The Guitar Society reserves the right to cancel any competition division and return student entries and fee if insufficient entries are received for the 2010 competition.